RULES

GAME SETUP

Put "Island Map" in the center of the table. Each player gets a pile of tokens with similar shields color on the back. (With red shields for one player, with blue - for another.). Each player should divide his pile of tokens for two smaller piles: basic characters (18 tokens) and mercenary characters (12 tokens).

Note: If you play Basic games, you do not need mercenary characters tokens. Return them back to the box. Take 5 tokens from the pile with basic characters. Do not show tokens to your opponent. Carefully shuffle the rest of the pile and put it near you face down. Put all coins in one pile near "Weather and Mercenary Board". Choose the first player, who was on a trip recently or won the previous game.

Extended Game Setup: With Weather Cards. Place "Weather and Mercenary Board" near "Island Map". Shuffle weather cards and put them near "Weather and Mercenary Board". The Second player takes 2 top cards from the deck and chooses one from them. Other card returns to the bottom of the weather deck. The place was chosen weather card on "Weather and Mercenary Board" and apply its effect described in the weather cards page. This is your active weather for this round.

Extended Game Setup: With Mercenary Characters.

Note: The Weather Cards rules are also applied when you play with Mercenary Characters.

Each player gets a pile of mercenary characters tokens with similar shields color on the back. (With red shields for one player, with blue for another.) and put these tokens to the "Weather and Mercenary Board". You are ready to start!

Game Play. The player always should have 5 character tokens at the beginning of his turn.

Note: The player may have characters, with a background color of his opponent's characters (spies). Try to use them carefully. The player chooses one token from hand and places it to any free tile on the "Island Map". The player should try to build a line from his characters tokens on the "Island Map" and block lines of his opponent. The player takes one token from the top of his character tokens pile. The turn goes to the next player.

The End of the Round. The round ends, when no free tiles are left on the "Island Map". After the end of the round players score their victory points. (See "Game End And Scoring"). Players note their score somewhere. Players remove their character tokens from the "Island Map", and form the character tokens piles. Players choose 5 character tokens and shuffle their piles. The round starts again. The second player becomes first in this round.

Note: Game lasts 2 rounds. The winner of the game is the player who scores more victory points.

GAME WITH WEATHER CARDS

Use all rules and setup, that described in "Basic Game". Additionally use the setup described in "Extended Game Setup: With Weather Cards". At the beginning of each round, the second player takes 2 top cards from the deck and chooses one from them. Other card returns to the bottom of the weather deck. The player applies its effect described in the weather cards page. This is the active weather for this round.

When the currently active card is a Sunny Weather, the turn should follow by basic rules. When the currently active card is a Cloudy Weather or a Foggy Weather, at the start of the turn, the player, who must play his token and there are no free tiles, should remove any of Fog Boards from the "Island Map". Next player continues his turn on the opened part of the map as usual.

GAME WITH MERCENARY CHARACTERS

Use all rules and setup, that described in "Basic Game" and "Game with Weather Cards". Additionally use the setup described in "Extended Game Setup: With Mercenary Characters". Players should apply the ability of mercenary character when placing token face up (happened on Sunny or Cloudy weather). Players cannot apply the ability of mercenary character when placing token face down (happened on Foggy weather). Exceptions are Pig, Cat, and Crow, their abilities work as usual. Note: All characters token with the white background are considered to be neutral. They cannot be moved by any of Mercenary character's effect. They do not bring any points to players. After scoring points, players get coins equal to the number of victory points. Players may hire mercenary character, exchanging basic character and pay a needed cost. (Costs described in "Mercenary Characters Description" page). Players add hired mercenary characters to their character piles. The number of character tokens in the player pile should always be equal 18, that's why players must exchange their basic character tokens to mercenary character tokens. Note: Game lasts 4 rounds. The winner of the game is the player who scores more coins. If there is a tie, players count the cost of all hired mercenary characters. If still a tie, players should play an additional round.

TEAM GAME VARIANT

This is a variant of the game for 4 players. (2 teams with 2 players in each team). Use all rules and setup, that described in "Game with Mercenary Characters". In this variant, players should choose one weather for the entire game. In this variant only Sunny Weather is possible. In a team divide 18 character pile between 2 players (9 characters for each player in a team). The player should take character tokens only from his own pile. It is not allowed to take characters from a teammate pile. Players from one team should not discuss their tactics or give pieces of advice to each other. The players from one team should not have a turn immediately after his teammate. They have to sit one against each other. Additional turn rules for "Game with Mercenary Characters" Players from one team have a common pile of coins. Only one player from each team in a round may be responsible for hiring mercenary characters. Those players cannot discuss, which character to hire, with their teammates. Players from team shuffle all hired mercenary characters and divided a pile between players.

QUICK GAME VARIANT

Use all rules and setup, that described in "Game with Mercenary Characters". In this variant, players should choose one weather for the entire game. Note: Game lasts 2 rounds in this variant. Players get 80 coins each at the beginning of the game. Players can buy Mercenary characters for these coins. All coins that left, should be returned to the coin's general pile. Play game by "Game with Mercenary Characters" rules, but use the weather, that was chosen at the beginning of the game.

GAME END AND SCORING

Basic Game and Game with Weather Cards ends after 2 rounds.

Game with Mercenary Characters ends after 4 rounds. Player scores all horizontal, vertical and diagonal lines of his color by next rules:

Number of Tokens in Line Number of Victory Points

3 Tokens – 3 points
4 Tokens – 5 points
5 Tokens – 7 points
6 Tokens – 10 points

Character scoring clarification

If character token builds a couple of lines, it scores in each of these lines. If 2 Pigs builds one line, victory points are doubled (ignore one Pig ability). If Pig and Cat build one line, victory points are tripled (ignore Pig ability). If Pig/ Cat and Crow King build one line, use Cat or Pig abilities first, and then Crow ability.
